The party went from the ship to the Hotel Pennsylvania, which will be the New York headquarters during their stay. An elaborate program of entertainment has been drawn, in charge of Judge Lippincott, J. Edward Hardenbergh, of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey. Mr. Myers headed the delegation which went to Havana in February, when a tablet in honor of Elisha Kent Kane, the explorer, was placed on the wall of the house in Havana, where he died.

The party will spend to-day seeing New York. To-morrow a reception is planned in Newark, to be followed by a luncheon at Montelair and visit to Washington's headquarters at Morristown. Wednesday the New York hospitals and welfare institutions will be inspected, and Thursday the party goes to Coney Island, pleasure bent. thirty-eight in number, representing the Masonic Grand Lodge of the island, arrived in New York yesterday on the United Fruit liner Pastores, on a visit to New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and to place in the Hotel Raleigh, Washington, a commemorative tablet to Calisto Garcia Iniguez, the Cuban patriot and leader who died there in 1898. With the party are ten women relatives and three boys, sons of members of the delegation.

The visit to this courtry is by way of a return for the journey to Havana made in February by a similar delegation from the Eastern States. Dr. Felix V. Preval, secretary of the Grand Lodge of Cuba, and Vicente Gonzales, of Union Latina Lodge.

At the pier to greet the delegation were Erastus Knight, a former mayor of Buffalo; Judge Advocate of the Grand Lodge of New York; Luiz Laredo, Past District Deputy of the Tenth District; Jacob C. J. G. Woolley, Dry Crusader,

Dies in Spain Cerebral Attack Fatal to Former Prohibition Candidate for President: Born in Collinsville, Ohio

New York Lawyer in 1885

Was Leader in the Campaign Until Advent of the Anti-Saloon League

GRANADA, Spain, Aug. 13 (By The Associated Press).—John G. Wooney, of Madison, Wis., former prohibition candidate for President of the United States, died at 11:15 o'clock this morning after an illness of several days, due to a cerebral attack. Mr. Woolley passed away before the arrival in Granada of members of his family.

John Granville Woolley, known as "the Wendeli Phillips of the Prohibition party" and candidate of that party for President in 1900, was born in Collinsville, Ohio, on February 15, 1850. He was a descendant in a direct line from George Fox, founder of the Society of Friends in England, who paid several visits to America.

he was always enthusiastically received, he proved a poor vote-getter for the party; at least, as mensured by the strength it developed in more recent years.

Woolley's interest in prohibition soon absorbed all his time, and he abandoned the practice of law and devoted himself to a year-in-and-year-out campaign, writing and speaking and organizing. With the advent of the Anti-Saloon League his influence in the organization waned, and during the last ten years his name was hardly ever mentioned in connection with the cause of which he was the most pic-
